Rob Steele

Name – Robert Steele – Superintendent – Rob has been with Dunkin & Bush since 2003, originally starting out as a Foreman for our maintenance painting efforts at the Coastal Aruba Refinery in Aruba, N.V. More recently, Rob has been traveling between states overseeing such projects as the Lynden Bridge in Whatcom County, numerous projects at the Tesoro Refining & Marketing facilities in both Anacortes, Washington & Salt Lake City, UT and most currently at the Allegheny Technologies, Inc. facility in North Skull Valley, UT.

How long have you worked at Dunkin & Bush, Inc.? Since 2003 - I was asked if I would go to Aruba...I said "Sure - where is it?"

Do you have any nicknames? "Cowboy." A man need not to own a horse to live by the simple rules and values of the "Cowboy Way."

I am inspired by...? Pride in workmanship.

Who is someone that can always make you smile, even when you're in a bad mood? Janet (his wife), because even when I am away working on the road she is always there for us.

What are you most likely to be famous for? Doing this "Spotlight!"

If you needed someone at three in the morning, who would come right away? The police.

You just robbed a bank - how do you spend the money? On a good lawyer.

What is the most beautiful place you have ever visited? Yellowstone National Park.

What have you done in your life that you are especially proud of? Painting the Lynden Bridge. Circumstances with the wind and rain made it a fun challenge.

If you could live on a television series, which would you choose? Hawaii Five-0, because I've always wanted to co-star with Roy Parrett.

My name is Rob Steele; My Company is Dunkin & Bush, Inc.
