Worth Goss

Name – Worth Goss – Painter: Worth (also known as “W.C.”) has been an employee of Dunkin & Bush, Inc. since fall of 2010. He grew up around Ellensburg, WA and relocated to the Puget Sound area in the fall of 2009. Worth has worked on several projects for Dunkin & Bush, including our operations at Safeco Field, BP, Port Angeles, and lately he has been providing additional support for the Redmond shop.

I am inspired by... Country music.

My job is to... Make everyone else’s easier.

What three things would you take with you on a road trip? Dog, wallet, and phone.

What is something you have always wanted to accomplish? A good career.

When you feel sad, what cheers you up? A good movie.

Do you think honesty is always the best policy? Why or why not? Yes, no one wants to be around liars.

What do you think is the right age for marriage? 28, because you’ve got your stuff together hopefully.

If only Dunkin & Bush had... Job site cheerleaders.

If you were given a supernatural power, which would you prefer? Flying, of course.

What is the best concert you have ever attended? Tim McGraw at the Gorge.

If you had to eat the same item of food at every meal, what would it be? Steak.
