

Employee Spotlight

Ed Pruesser Sr.

Name: Ed Pruesser Sr. - Superintendent - Redmond Office - 7 years and now 25 years

What is your most recent large scale project? Safeco Field

Do you have any nicknames? Ed the Painter, (Tom Dunkin II calls Ed, "Big Ed," because Ed Pruesser Jr. also works for Dunkin & Bush)

What is it that you do exactly? Try to stay out of trouble

What is your favorite food? King Crab

What was your first car? Model T Ford

When does your alarm go off? My alarm goes off when someone tries to lie to me

Which is more important, intelligence or common sense? They are both very important

Do you have any great advice? Teamwork is the key. It takes the right mix of personalities and experience to make the job work. You need to evaluate the project against the crew to know how best to manage it.

Do you have any pet peeves? People that don't listen

What's the best bargain you've ever found? $5.00 for a Penn Senator fishing reel

Have you ever met anyone famous? Dino Rossi. He was working at the space needle buffing floors at one time. Last September I met him at the Western State Fair in Puyallup.

Describe your perfect day: Deep sea Marlin fishing

My name is Ed Pruesser Sr.; My Company is Dunkin & Bush, Inc.